

Journal of International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict (JILPAC)

Call for Papers (2019)

The editorial board

invites authors to submit papers to be published in the 2019 issues

The Journal of International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict / Humanitäres Völkerrecht (JILPAC / HuV) specialises in the legal analysis surrounding armed conflicts. JILPAC focuses on the contemporary challenges of international humanitarian law and related fields, including international human rights law and international criminal law as well as on practical challenges of humanitarian aid and peace missions. The JILPAC publishes papers, commentaries, case notes, book reviews, and conference reports on current events and future developments of the law and of humanitarian action in both English and German.

We invite submissions of articles focusing on the following topics:

- 70th anniversary of the Geneva Conventions (deadline: 15 January 2019)
- Protection of vulnerable groups (deadline: 15 July 2019)

Contributions can be submitted in English or German. We further welcome conference reports, book reviews (upon request), and case notes. Instructions for contributors can be found on the website of the IFHV as well as on the website of the Berliner Wissenschafts-Verlag.

All articles are subject to a double blind peer-review process by the editorial and advisory board.
