

LL.M in International and Comparative Disability Law and Policy

Study international and comparative disability law with guidance from world-leading scholars at the Centre for Disability Law and Policy (CDLP).

Who Is This Course For?

This course is ideal for individuals committed to advancing disability rights, motivated by international legal challenges, and eager to engage with a global community of scholars and practitioners. It will equip you with the knowledge, skills, and experience to make a meaningful impact. The programme is open to candidates with a primary degree in law and those with a degree in other relevant disciplines (e.g., disability studies), or work experience in disability.

Why this LLM is unique

- Exclusive prestigious internships based in Geneva with the UN Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities
- Opportunity to gain practical hands on experience completing projects for organisations of persons with disabilities, advocacy groups, and international organisations in our International Disability Human Rights Clinic
- Research led teaching delivered by world-leading scholars in disability law and justice
- Unique in the world as an innovative and internationally focused LLM dealing with the process of law reform in the field of disability

Duration: 1 year full time or 2 years part time.

Find out more

Use the QR code below for general programme information or contact the Programme Director Dr János Fiala-Butora at janos.fiala-butora@universityofgalway.ie or Professor Eilionóir Flynn, Director of the Centre for Disability Law and Policy, at eilionoir.flynn@universityofgalway.ie to arrange a 1:1 meeting

<https://www.universityofgalway.ie/cdlp/>

info.cdlp@universityofgalway.ie

linkedin.com/school/centre-for-disability-law-and-policy

